

December meetings...

Seasonal social to salt museum!

Our first December meeting will actually be our holiday social Tuesday, Dec. 5, followed by a sneak preview of the Kansas Underground Salt Museum at our Dec. 18 meeting.

Our Christmas dinner at The Highlands starts with a social at 6 p.m., followed by dinner at 7.

Socialize to festive holiday music. Then laugh with featured speaker Roger Cornish, news anchor for KWCH-TV Channel 12, who will show bloopers and humorous moments from newscasts.

The fun will continue with fellow Rotarian John Montgomery, publisher of The Hutchinson News. John will share bloopers from the world of print as well as his philosophy on community journalism and his goals for the local newspaper.

Cost is $17.50 per Rotarian, $25 per guest. Reservations are required – call Dave Thomas, 665-1027, by Thursday, Nov. 30!

Dinner includes prime rib, barbecued salmon, apple almond stuffed chicken breast, salad, potatoes, pasta, vegetables and assorted desserts.

Our Dec. 18 meeting will be a sneak preview of the Kansas Underground Salt Museum's grand opening.

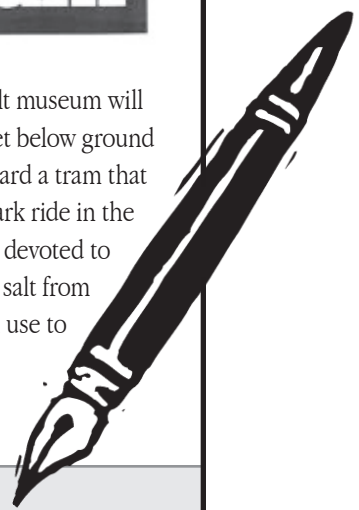

- Meet new Executive Director Linda Schmitt and hear her goals and dreams for the KUSM
- The Kansas Underground Salt Museum is a facility unlike any other in the United States.

The sneak preview includes:

- The very latest news, underground construction photos and timetable for the grand opening
- Presentations with underground images and photos by Dr. Neil Johnson, Director of Development, and Lynnette Hilty, Director of Marketing

Visitors to the salt museum will enjoy a trip 650 feet below ground where they will board a tram that takes them on a dark ride in the mine and galleries devoted to telling the story of salt from the earliest known use to the present day.
