

October's meetings...

A symphony of topics

You have three chances to make meetings in October, with speakers and topics ranging from the District Governor, to the United Way, to the Hutchinson Symphony.

On Oct. 3, Curtis Dick, Rotary District 5690 Governor, will be promoting the district conference in Winfield Nov. 3-5. He'll also be discussing the four major areas Rotary International President Carl-Wilhelm

Curtis Dick

Stenhammar is focusing on: membership, literacy, water management and the Rotary Foundation.

Curtis is a self-employed business consultant in Winfield.

He was born and raised in Clinton, Okla., and received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Southwestern Oklahoma State University.

Curtis has been a member of the Winfield Rotary

Club since 1997, serving as president in 2001-2002. During his year as president, the Winfield club received the District 5690 award for Club Service, Vocational Service and International Service, as well as the Grand Service Award and the district's Outstanding Club.

Curtis continues to be active in his local club and serves as the District 5690 Grant Committee chair.

On Oct. 17, Lisa Krieg, United Way of Reno County's campaign chair, will give an overview of this year's campaign.

Lisa Krieg

Lisa is leading United Way's effort to raise $1 million to help 30 local nonprofit organizations in the coming year.

Lisa is manager of the Hutchinson Dillards store. She has been with Dillards for 20 years, the past eight as store manager.

On Oct. 31, Dr. Richard Koshgarian, conductor for the Hutchinson Symphony Orchestra, will be our guest speaker.

Dr. Richard Koshgarian

He will talk about this year's symphony series, "Hit Parade."

Season tickets for the symphony are still available and are only $35 for adults and $30 for seniors over 60.

A native of Rhode Island, Dr. Koshgarian was accepted into the Rhode Island Philharmonic Youth Orchestra at age 12.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Rhode Island College, a master's from the University of Michigan and a doctorate in orchestral conducting from the University of Iowa.

He lives in Salina and currently serves as music director at the First Presbyterian Church, music director at Salina Community Theater and Orchestra Director at Bethany College.
